JUNIOR RUGBY

1. Is your son between the ages of 9-16?
2. Is he a budding Gerald Davies, a crafty Gareth Edwards or powerhouse Geoff Wheel?
3. Is he bored on Sunday mornings?

If the answer is yes to any of these questions, why not send your son along to Tylorstown Junior Rugby Coaching Sessions every Sunday morning 10.00am-12 noon at Maerdy Comprehensive School playing fields. Coaching sessions and games are arranged for all age groups by experienced club members, under the strict supervision of Welsh Rugby Union Qualified Coach, Mr Lyn Howells.

Are you prepared to give your son the chance to wear the red shirt of Wales?

Chairman's Address

One of the more enjoyable aspects of cup rugby is the opportunity it gives to meet clubs that you would not normally play.

Today we welcome Llandoverly R.F.C., a club paying their first visit to Penrhys. Llandoverly were one of the eleven clubs who founded the Welsh Rugby Union in 1881 and C. P. Lewis of the club captained Wales in 1882. In 1965 they were admitted to the West Wales Rugby Union from which the club has gone from strength to strength, and last season became West Wales Champions for the first time. In recent years they have beaten Pontypridd in the Welsh Cup, and in this year's competition gained an impressive away win against Tumble 17-12pts.

In the present Llandoverly side it is pleasing to note that Randall Jones, who plays at scrum half, is the son of a former Tylorstown player of the fifties and sixties the much talented Ken Jones (talented at what, I am not quite sure), nevertheless talented.

For me, rugby football is the finest team game in the world, friends once made are never forgotten, and I hope that the Llandoverly members return home with a favourable impression of the rugby people of Tylorstown.
